

MediaWeek

25 April - 2 May 2006 112 801 www.medaweek.co.uk

IN THIS ISSUE

Cocker takes on key Diffiniti trading role

New director to sit on Aegis Group trading board
Online News Page 15

Why radio looks for grey success stories

Saga aside, can commercial radio find "older" listeners?
Analysis Page 29

Sampson returns to his research roots

After ITV, running AGB Nielsen will be very different
Profile Page 16

How agencies stand out from the crowd

As consolidation drives agencies together, how do they develop a personality?
Feature Page 26

'I do well but still get criticism at work'

My boss puts me down in front of everyone else
On The Job Page 31

Starcom wins £13m Del Monte European work

Agency beats off competition from ZenithOptimedia and incumbent Initiative to secure account
Page 3

M2M adds Pringle to luxury client list

Fashion brand to focus on press, outdoor and online campaigns with its new agency
Page 6

Emap tipped to launch First

Now known as Project Jackie, weekly will have real-life news focus
Page 3

Wood moves to Freedom Media

Ex-Sky sales star joins branded content firm
Page 5

Ex-GWR's Muller joins Capital

As GCap reopens sale of analogue stations
Page 4

