

THIS IS THE LIFE >

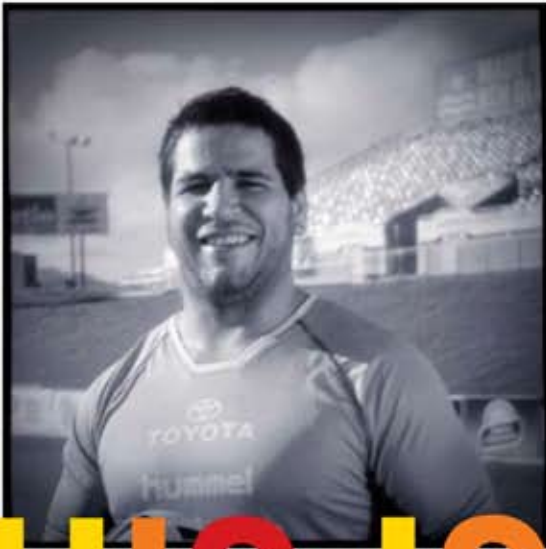

www.townsville.qld.gov.au

About 160,000 of us live in and around Townsville. All types. Young and old. Bushies and city slickers. Rough diamonds and loveable larrikins. But whoever we are, and however we got here, we've all got one thing in common. We love living under a Townsville sky.

THIS IS THE LIFE
Townsville

THIS IS THE LIFE >

Cane growers, cattle men, miners and merchants. They all came to Townsville to make their fortune, but ended up making their homes here instead. Some did it on purpose. Some by accident. But however they got here, there's one thing they all came to love. Living under a Townsville sky.

www.townsville.qld.gov.au

THIS IS THE LIFE
Townsville

THIS IS THE LIFE >

www.townsville.qld.gov.au

There's no place like Townsville. And Europeans weren't the first to discover this. However, since the 1860s, they've been coming here in droves, and not just to enjoy our glorious summers. But no matter when we got here, we've all got one thing in common. We love living under a Townsville sky.

THIS IS THE LIFE
Townsville