

It's Jimi Hendrix at Monterey torching his guitar. It's Seattle grunge, Memphis blues and the British Invasion. It's a garage band, an MC, a supergroup and a solo act. It's the Twist, the Worm and the Harlem Shake. It's a KISS T-shirt, ticket stub, poster and lunch box. It's the first show, the comeback and the farewell tour. It's rock, country and pop joining forces to feed the planet. It's praised for saving lives and blamed for taking them. It's what kids think will save the world and their parents say will end it. It's notes scribbled on a napkin, lyrics spray-painted on a wall and a freedom song hummed in a prison cell.
